Dedication

We, the Class of 1959, dedicate this book to our friend and teacher, Mrs. Roberta Goodfellow, who has guided us on our paths to wisdom, and has caused us to raise our sights to higher goals through her special qualities of patience, tolerance and friendliness.

Foreword

We feel our theme, "Reaching for a Star." is most appropriate at this particular time. Of course, when we say we are reaching for a star, we mean figuratively. Now, however, we can choose a star, and perhaps even in our life time we may be able to get there. The fact that we can reach a star—actually, leads us to aim high, and to proceed with confidence in attaining our goals, for we are encouraged because we are getting closer to the truth when we say "nothing is impossible."

We have attempted to show how the various parts of our school life have built and supplied the rocket or space ship which will take us to our star whether it be in the heavens or on earth. "Reaching for a Star" is no longer a wish; a desire; a symbol—suddenly it has real meaning.

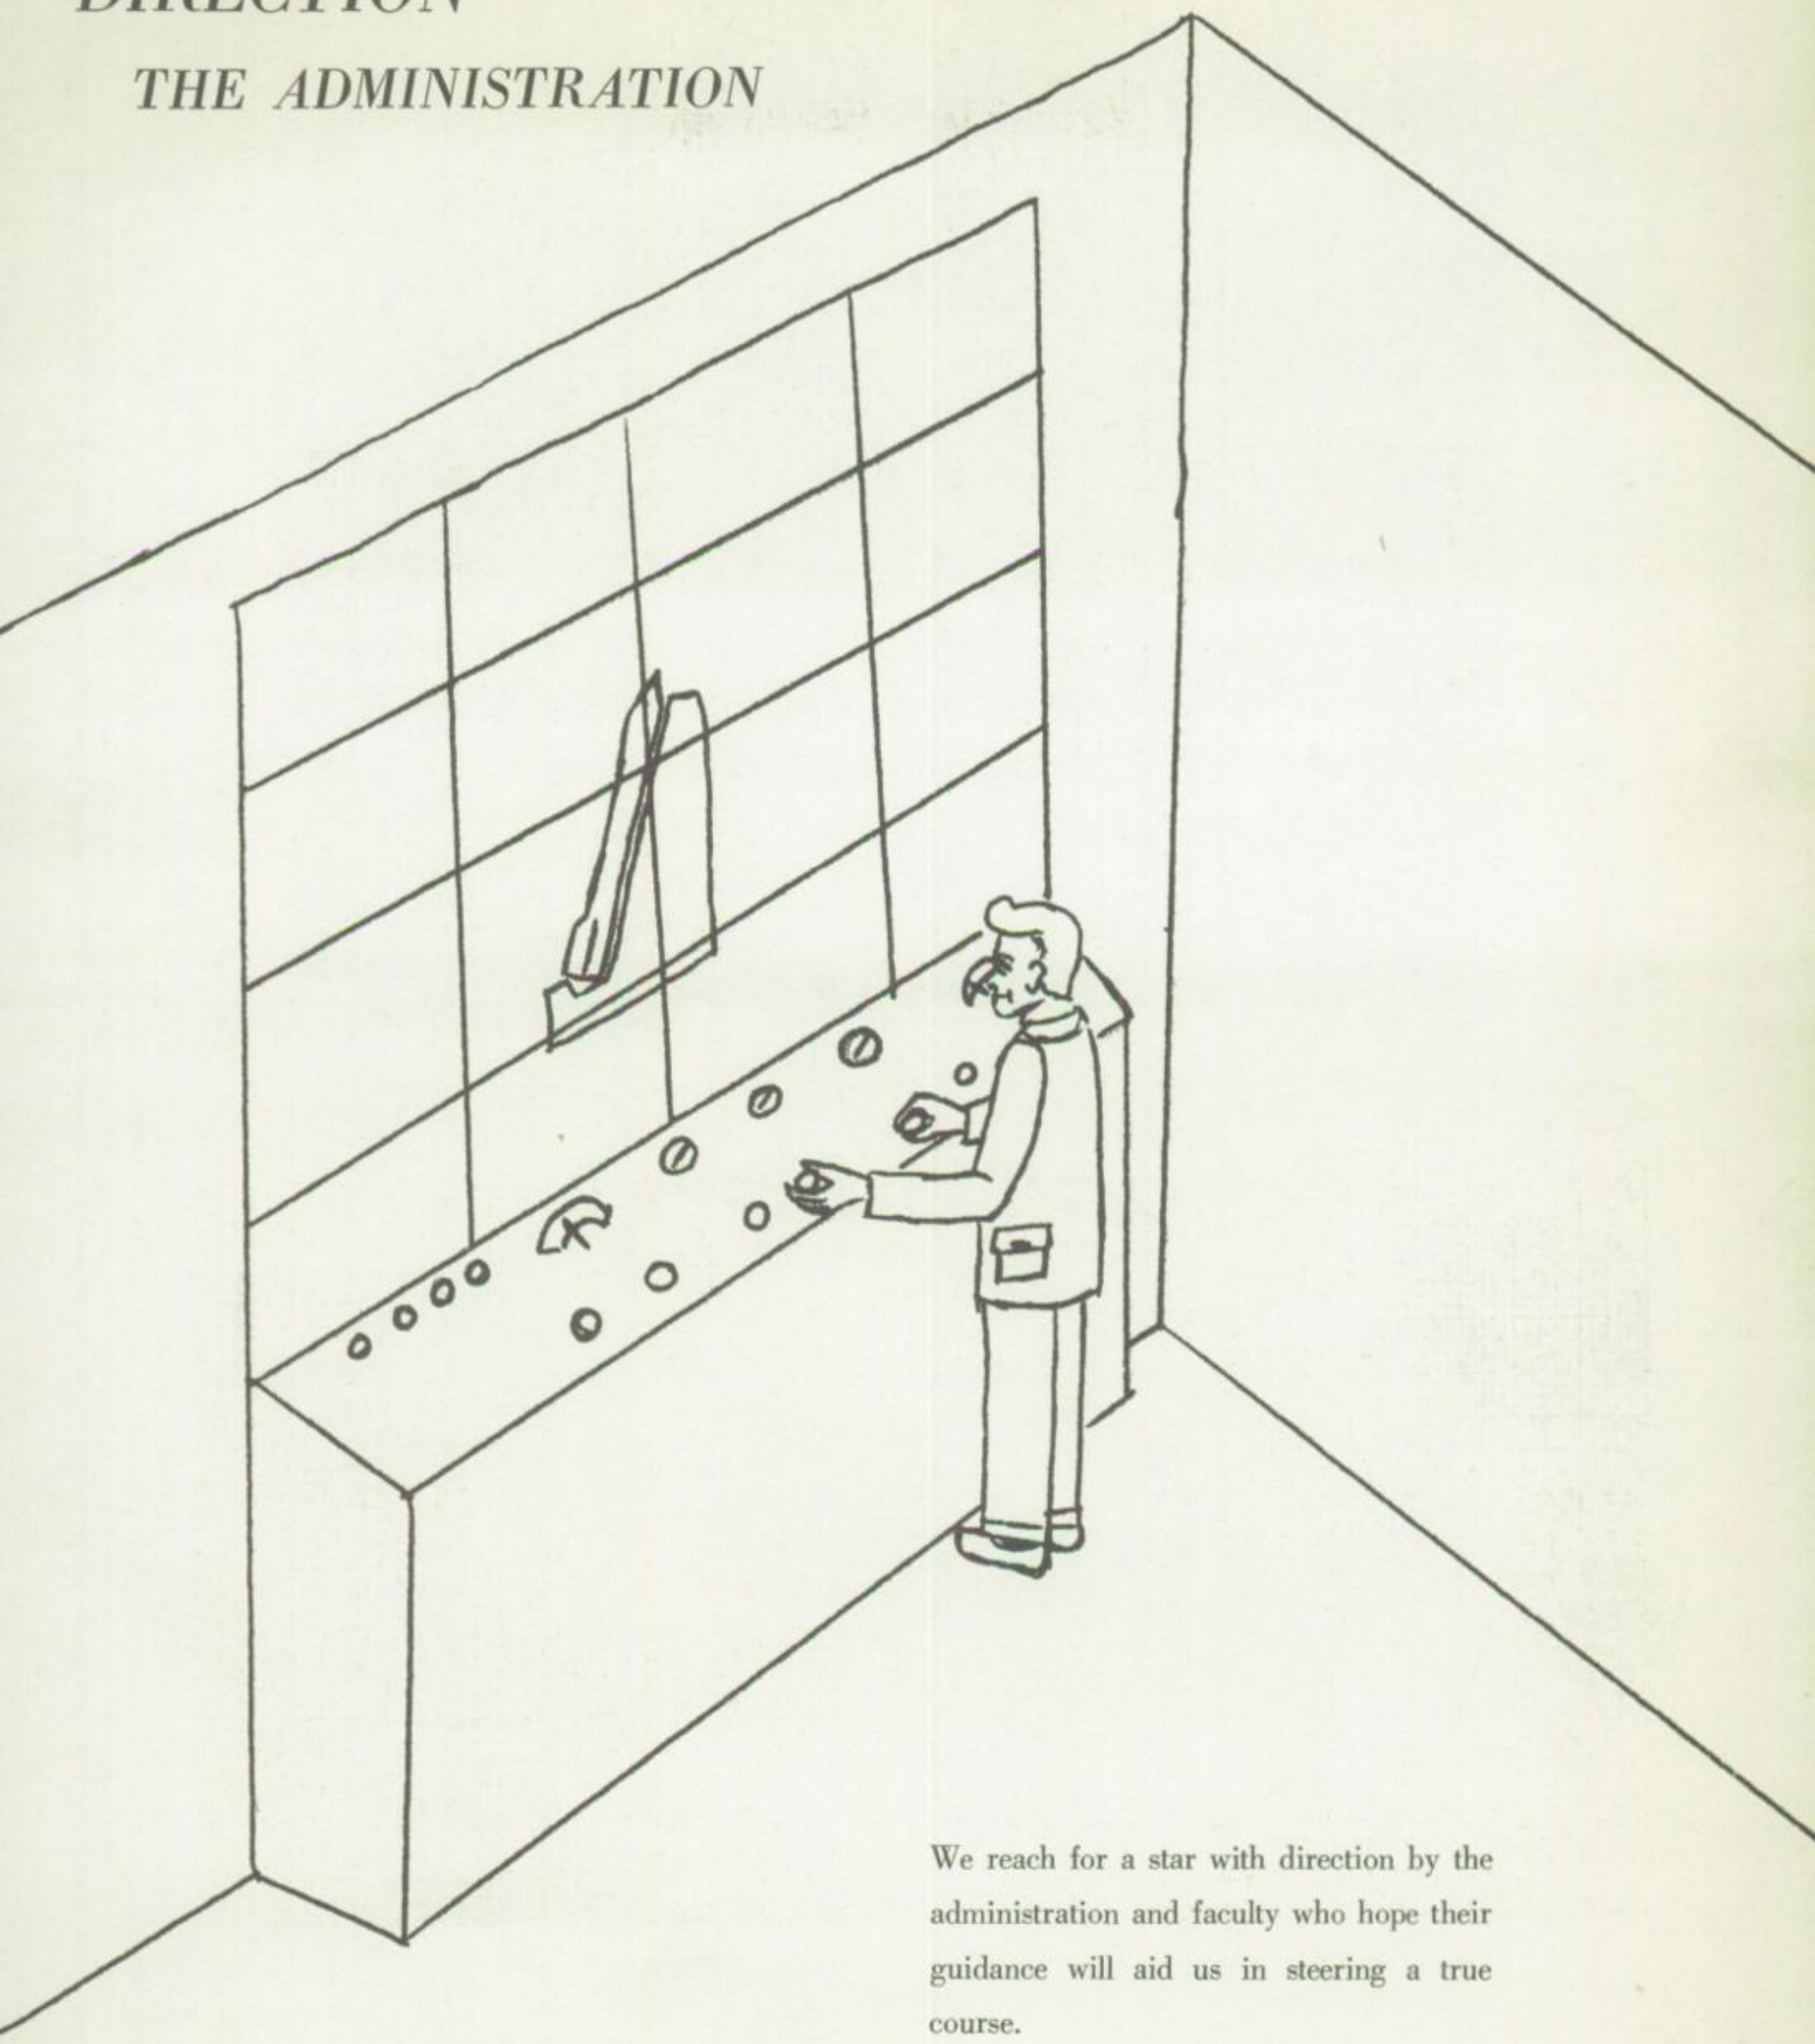
DIRECTION

THE ADMINISTRATION



We reach for a star with direction by the administration and faculty who hope their guidance will aid us in steering a true course.

Our Principal

MR. GREENFIELD

Tioga Central School

WILFERD E. GREENFIELD
DISTRICT PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1959:

You have achieved one of the many goals that you have set for yourselves and now stand on the threshold of a new phase of life. A bright new future is opening before you as you are going to live and work in the atomic and space age. Have faith in yourself and your fellow man and I am sure that you will succeed in whatever you choose to do.

Class Will

I, Charles Alger, will be satisfied just to leave this place.

I, Linda Aluffo, leave my ability to argue with Mr. Evans to anyone who can handle it.

I, Richard Arnold, leave to find fame and fortune.

I, Robert Barnhart, leave Bev Rogers with a cold seat on the bus and Paul Friedrichsen to keep it for her. I also leave Jackie Chamberlain an empty driveway.

I, Frances Barrows, leave my Saturday nights to anyone as brave as I was.

I, Ronnie Bellis, leave my ability to get in drag races to Tom VanDusen and Elaine Wiswell.

I, Gary Bennett, leave my ability at slipping out of classes and going home to Sharon Greenfield.

I, Barbara Burke, leave Teddy with the best way possible to do his bookkeeping.

I, Nancy Davis, leave Joan Pipher with this verse, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ." Romans 1:16.

I, Bill Dawson, leave my quarterback spot on the football team to Gary Horton.

I, Wimp Dewey, leave my ability to play football to Teddy Burke.

I, Carol Eccleston, just leave.

I, Ronald Fisher, leave T.C.S. uneducated.

I, Gary Foote, leave T.C.S. without the expense of raising the doorways.

I, Sharon Gavitt, leave Sheila my place as a senior to keep an eye on things.

I, David Hall, leave my seat in the office to anyone who likes to hunt.

I, Diane Hudson, leave all of Shorthand II and Transcription to Mary Best.

I, Cookie Hunt, leave my ability to get along with teachers to my sister Mary, my ulcer to Dar McNeil, and my ability to just miss on-coming cars and telephone poles to my brother Chuck.

I, Bill Krapf, leave Math 12 to anyone who can understand it.

I, Lulubelle Layer, leave my brother Howard with more freedom at T.C.S.

I, Edith L'Hommedieu, leave Doug with all the burdens of my school record.

I, Sharon McElwain, leave my sister Susann my ability to get along with Mr. Meade.

I, Rosemary Merrill, leave my classes with Mr. Hart to my sister Roberta.

I, Jeanne Middaugh, leave my two years of English 3 to anyone who needs it.

I, Alton Middleton, leave my ability to play basketball to George Reams.

I, Pat Pipher, leave my ability to talk in study halls to my sister Joan.

I, Barbara Rogers, leave Miss Meyermann with one less headache in 9th period study hall.

I, Jean Schwab, leave all the headaches of being Senior Class President to next year's president.

I, Jean Scott, leave my seat to anyone who can fill it.

I, Harriet Sherman, leave T.C.S. to my sister Shirley.

I, Carol Taylor leave my ability to love to Mary Best and my accidents in gym team to anyone who wants them.

I, Jack Taylor, leave Bill Waterman my ability to play basketball and to get along with the teachers.

I, Deann Thurber, leave Ronnie Zylich my red suspenders which were willed to me by Marion Lane.

I, Frank VanNorman, leave Driver Training class luckily with my life.

I, Geraldine Walters, leave my ability to spell to Joan Pipher.

I, Marlene Westbrook, leave my seat on Bus 18 to Sharon Greenfield.

I, Dean Willis, leave Carol Briggs my sideburns, and love to Miss Meyermann.

I, Jim Norton, leave my ability to sleep in school to anyone who gets tired of school.

We, Jean, Cookie, Sharon, and Rosemary leave all our late nights and long afternoons of work on the yearbook to anyone who likes to ride on the basketball bus.

We, the class of '59, leave the role of "High 'n Mighty Seniors" to the class of 1960.

Signed on the ninth day of February, 1959, by us who are eager yet sad to leave Tioga Central School.

History

In September of 1955, our crew numbering 60 set forth on our first adventurous trip into space. Mr. Meade and Mr. Corrigan guided this first trip by supervising our magazine sales and candy sales. The trophies for winning the magazine sale were awarded to Carol Taylor and Janice Tobin. The highlight of the trip was the freshman initiation, candlelight service and dance given by the seniors.

Under the leadership of Mr. Ruger on our second trip, we advanced further into space, coming closer to our goal by selling refreshments at the basketball games and having many successful dances.

At the halfway mark of our school life we embarked on our third trip. We sold stationery, put on a carnival, and tried our hand at acting by producing "Aunt Samanthy Rules the Roost," directed by Mrs. Goodfellow. The two memorable moments that took place were the receiving of our class rings, which we're all so proud of, and the Junior Prom. With the help of Mr. Merena and Miss Niciu, we worked hard at the tasks necessary to make this prom a success. Our dance was a wonderful success with the beautiful "Oriental" theme and the crowning of King Jack and Queen Jean.

In the fall of 1958, our crew now numbering 43, began our last year with the presentation of the Senior Play, "No Boys Allowed" under the direction of Mr. Evans. Our many activities directed by Miss Meyerman and Mr. Evans brought our visions of Washington closer.

When we entered high school in September 1955, and began to reach for that far away star of graduation, it seemed far away and unattainable, but now as we hold this star in our hand, we see that it is only the beginning of a lifetime of reaching for higher and higher stars. We, the fifth graduating class of Tioga Central School, will always look back on the fun-filled years that started us on our journey into life.

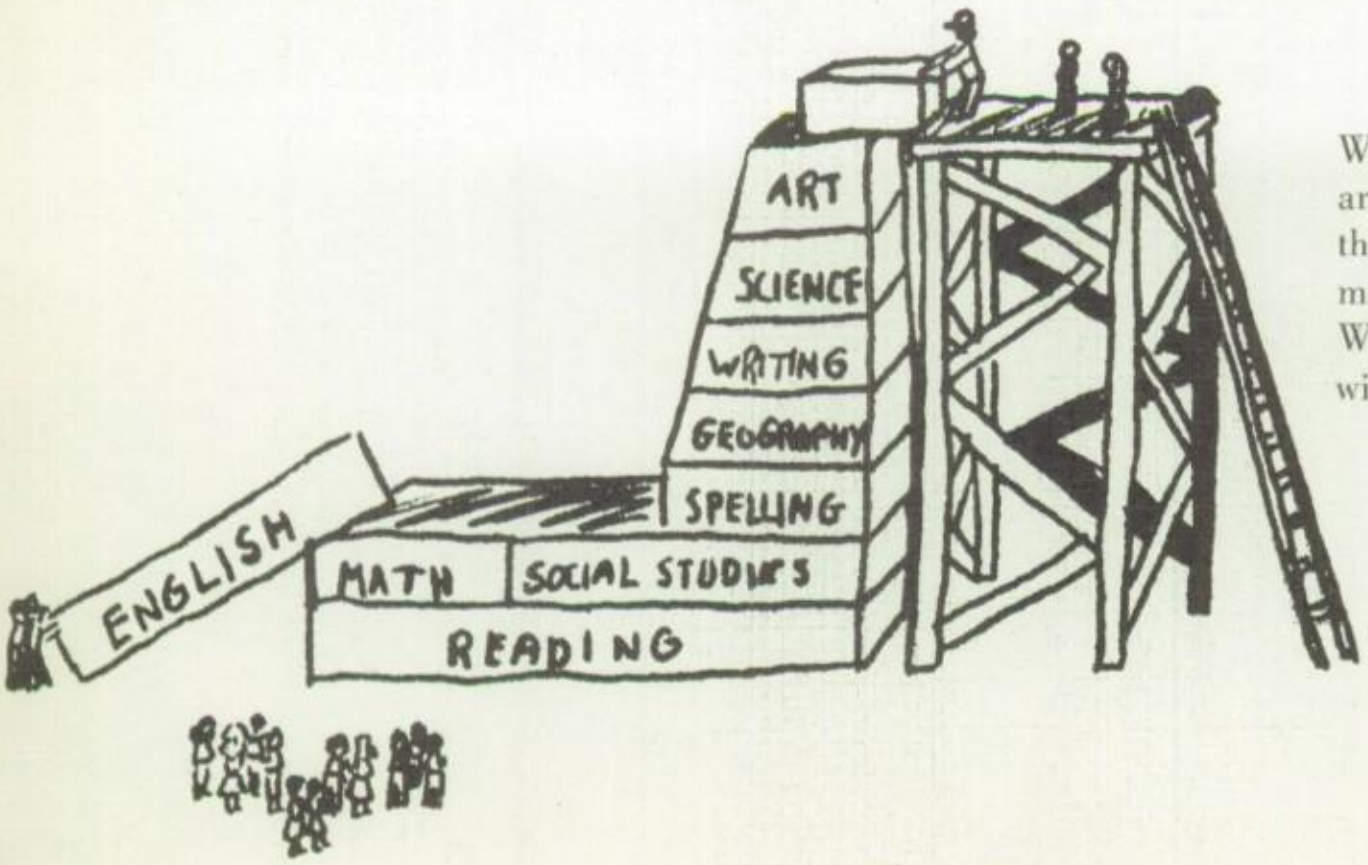
NICHOLS BUILDING
PRINCIPAL

Mrs. Freda Wilmot

We, the builders of the launching bases, are putting together the 3 R's and all the modern concepts of education, to make a firm foundation for the future. We are learning about the stars that we will someday choose.



"A New Star in Nichols"

In 1912, the now ivy-covered brick building was constructed to replace the old wooden one. Many footsteps have gone through the halls of this building, leaving many happy memories in our minds. It was a four-year high school until 1956 when Nicholas centralized with Tioga Center. For the next two years this old building was used as an elementary school only. In the fall of 1958, the grade pupils left to move into the new Nichols Elementary School. Tioga Central School and the many people of Nichols who attended this school look into the future with the memory of the past.

The Stars Look Down on Us

Our Stars Are Nearer Now

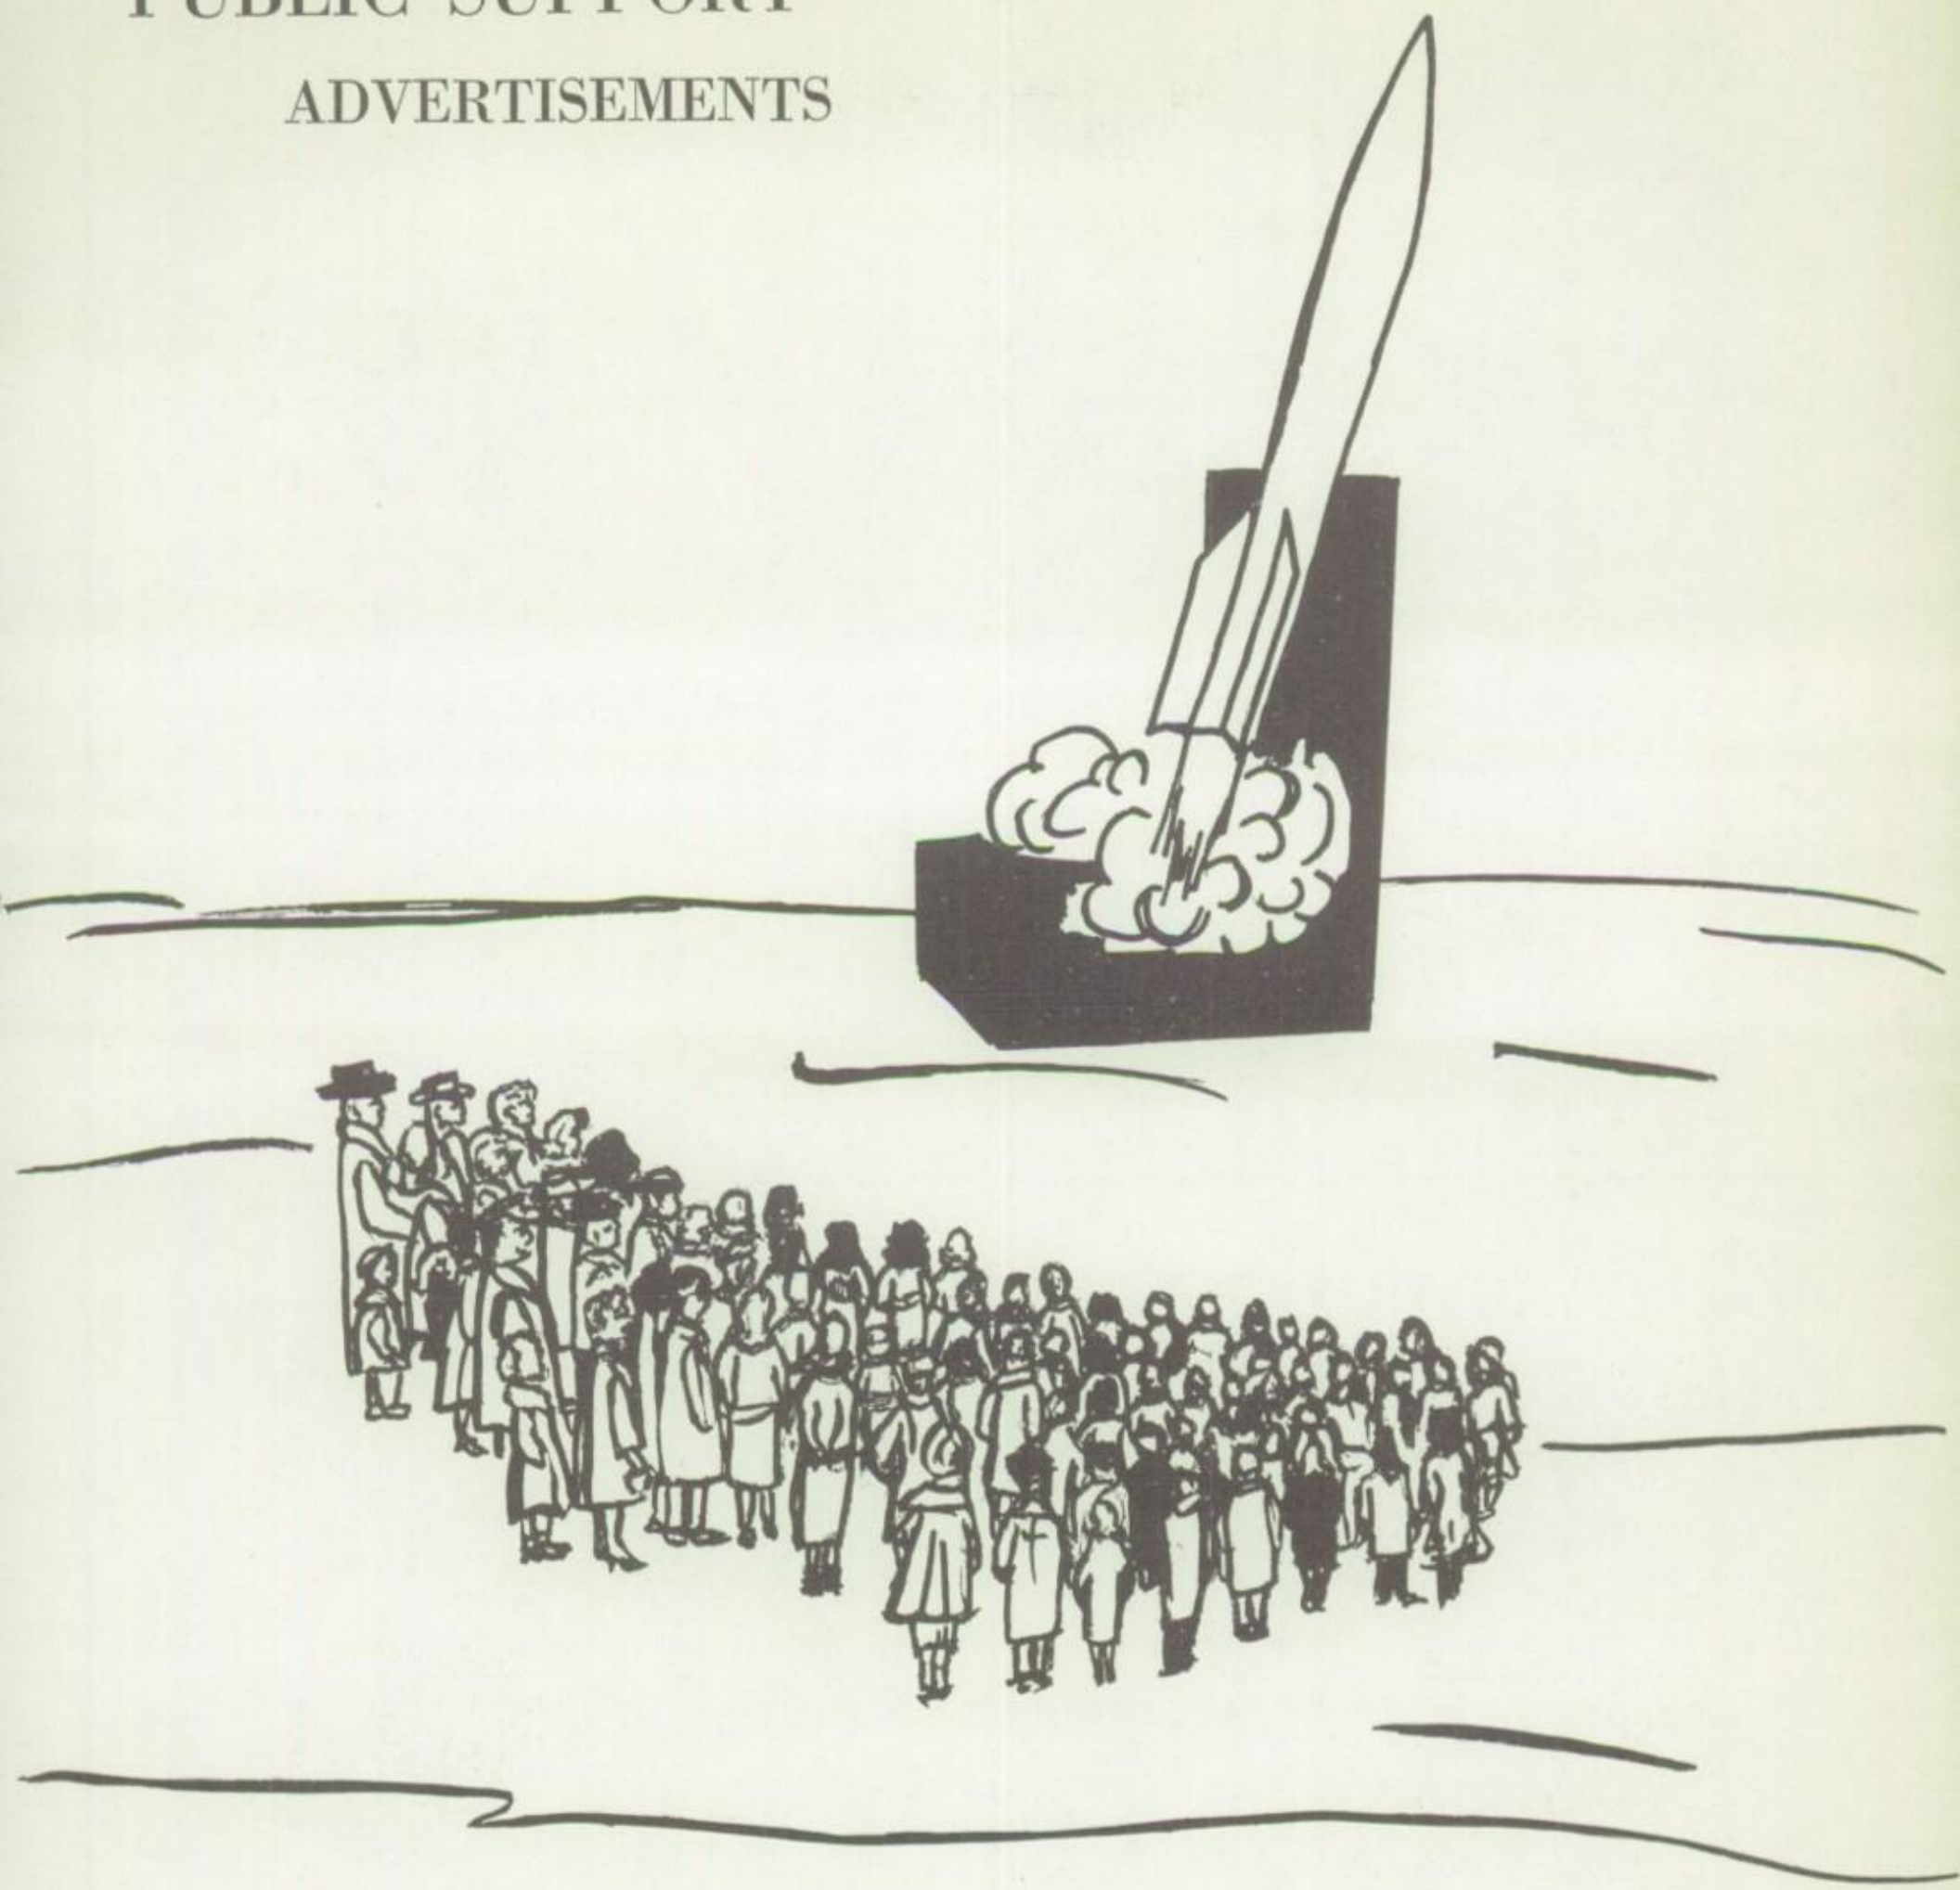
Our school is an infant when we compare it to schools which have been in existence for half a century or more. Yet our school is growing rapidly because our community is growing. In this growth our curriculum has expanded as needs or desires arose. Now we have come of age. We are well on our way to attaining goals which, only yesterday, were not dreamed of by our parents and ourselves.

And, we are still growing, for only that which grows constantly changes. So, too, we are constantly changing—new courses, new activities, new needed rules and regulations to replace old ones are all in the process of growing. We, who are seniors, leave T.C.S. with this spirit of constantly growing and expanding, constantly attaining greater heights which only yesterday seemed impossible to reach. With this spirit we face a world which, though chaotic, offers opportunities to drive ahead to conquer the problems which now exist, and which now seem impossible to solve. We have been reaching, though perhaps blindly, for our stars. Now we are beginning to see the light; the stars are clearer; the way is shorter, and our enthusiasm is keener.

Our theme, "Reaching For a Star," we feel most appropriate at this time in history. Not since the invention of the telescope have we learned so much so quickly about our universe. And all this, we realize, comes at a time when our own planet still baffles us in many ways. The Space Age is the new order, and our stars are now literally just above us waiting only for the final push to be accessible. But we need not enter space to touch our stars. Right here, on this planet called Earth, are many problems we can tackle and hope to aid in their solution. Reaching for a star can be onward as well as upward.

PUBLIC SUPPORT

ADVERTISEMENTS



We support—We help with our money and backing because we have faith in the future, and know that some day they will touch the stars they are reaching for.

THE SPACE AGE

Today scientists throughout the world are exploring the most advanced and exciting frontier ever encountered—the conquest of space. The extremely rapid advancement of technological know-how in the past twenty years has led us to the very brink of actual space travel.
As this technology expands, greater educational opportunities must be provided for our youth, who in turn must be willing to accept the challenge of the Space Age.
